

Relet Brading, etc. Chapman is a well-intentioned right-winger who can get and do things but to me~~x~~ seems inclined to go overboard without being pushed. Mary has long been silent. I've heard nothing from any of them in a long time. I do not think this story adds up to anything. If there is something to it, that something has not been aduced. Judging from those who have gone for it, on that basis alone I have doubts. They always go unerringly to the foolish or insane...If the Warren interview was on public TV, I saw it. If you have a story, I have not. Lesar said JP was getting the transcript, but I've not seen it. Howard coming today. Time to meet his bus. Many thanks, and you have a good year!
